At last week's meeting...

Last week, the club had a very productive meeting. Charlie Holt was the Ambuc of the Day and told us about his family and his long history in Ambucs. Charlie works at NY Life and is a former Caprock Ambuc of the Year. Leslye Geistmann was recognized for all her hard work on getting the equipment in the storage room to people that can use the equipment.

Then the club broke into committees. The Fun committee gleefully informed the club about the upcoming Halloween party. It will be at the KoKo at 6:30 with food, games and the Colt Compton Jazz Quartet. The Service Committee detailed the workday that will organize the storage unit (see Coming Soon). The Information Committee informed the club about our upcoming speaker on the 15th from Bayer Crop Science. The Friendship Committee hugged everyone. Seriously, they let the club know about the marketing idea that includes the Chamber.
