AT LAST WEEK'S MEETING...

We had two children who received AmTrykes. It was a great presentation. Shaun Keel was our speaker. She updated us on the Foster A Life Beach Party. Posters were handed out and we were encouraged to attend. For those of you that missed (and there were a lot!!!!) you missed one of the most touching endings I have seen at our weekly meeting. We sang happy 40th birthday to Alison. Just kidding. The two AmTryke recipients were foster children before finding their home and they asked to come pray for Shaun and her event. There was not a dry eye left in the bunch. If you missed, you should have been there. It really puts into perspective our work as a group.

Invite Guests! We need to grow! It is up to you!

THURSDAY

Chaplin from the Montford Unit.
Possible AmTryke giveaway!

Paul Bush Update

He has been moved to Raider Ranch, room #201. His broken leg is fully healed and he is getting therapy to help him walk again. He would appreciate company and misses coming to club meetings.

For those who missed - Great AmTryke Presentation last week!
