AT LAST WEEK'S MEETING...

Several members enjoyed the meeting last week. Dr. Gary Swantz was the speaker and he gave a great presentation. He spoke about an assignment he gave his college students. He told them to talk to someone between the ages of 35-70 and ask about one of their regrets and best advice. One bit of advice was to not take advice from people who are doing worse than you. Another piece of advice was that if it has boobs or has an engine, it is trouble. At the end of the meeting he sold out of his books that he brought with him, but don't worry, you can order them off the internet. ## THURSDAY THURSDAY THURSDAY

Regular Meeting at the KoKo. We will vote on several important issues.

May 4th is known as Star Wars Day and that is why today's theme was chosen. The phrase "May the 4th be with you" has caught on. It was either that theme or something about May showers or the NFL Draft. Also, Mike Massengale has offered to wear his Chewbacca costume to the meeting if Star Wars was chosen as the theme!

Star Wars: In Concert was scheduled to perform at the USA on May 23rd, but cancelled due to an unforeseen scheduling conflict. Apparently, they thought they could travel at hyperspeed...
