AT LAST WEEK'S MEETING... we again had 20 people in attendance last week. Our AMBUC of the Day was our newest member, Willy Keeler. Willy was in the Marine Corps for 29 years and has been a gunsmith for 15 years, so don't mess with Willy! We were lucky enough to have another AmTryke giveaway at our club meeting. Pics of Shasta receiving her Tryke are on page 2! It was announced that a ramp build would be on Saturday at 8:30 and only last about 4 hours (pics on page 2)(Gary needs a watch). Leslye Molamphy announced that there will be 10+ Trykes available for the largest basketball tournament in the hemisphere! We still need a couple of volunteers with pickups to help load up equipment to take to the storage shed and should only take about an hour (contact Leslye). Our committees came up with some relatively mediocre ideas. We aren't sure if the Friendship committee did anything but talk about haboobs. The Service Committee planned Kids Christmas a little more. The Fun Committee announced that we would have an AMBUCS tailgate party for the Iowa State Game on the 29th. The game starts at 6 and people will start showing up around noon. See box below, left for additional details. The Info committee informed everyone that they had people assigned to get speakers for the rest of the year. The meeting ended early (thank you Charlie) with a morbid joke from Gary Johnson about Cindy Miller's favorite radio personality.

Family friendly

The tailgate spot for the ISU game is located directly west of Memorial Circle (Broadway runs into Memorial Circle). There are close parking spots if you arrive early or you can park east of University Ave. If cold enough, Holly (Joe's wife) may make chili for Frito pies and chili dogs. We have a gas grill if you would like something else cooked. If desired, you can give food or drinks to Joe on Thursday or Friday. Joe's cell is 787-6540.

The more the merrier!

Shasta getting on her new Tryke

Shasta had lactic acidosis as a baby and was not expected to live. She is very happy and was thrilled to ride her own bike. Her mom (pictured here) thanked everyone for their generosity.

The Tryke brings smiles to everyone. Thanks to Reagan for building the Tryke and Vic for transporting it.

Beginning ramp build.

Finishing ramp build after long day and many "that's what she said" comments.

Much easier to get out of house on a ramp instead of steep steps. He gave us "a million thanks".
